A POINT OF TRESPASS

Brought the Martin Case To a Sudden End.

THE COMPANY NOT LIABLE

No Wantonness Or Neglect Could Be Shown By the Plaintiff, and the Matter Was Withdrawn—All Other Suits Growing Out of the Accident Are Affected.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, June 25.—Not since the great McGregor case excited and interested the general public have there been scenes about the court house to compare with those attending the trial of the damage suit of Amanda Martin against the East Liverpool and Wellsville Electric Street Railway company.

Witnesses flocked here in droves yesterday, and many were the hopes expressed that the case would be tried and the matter settled. Jason H. Brookes and Judge Moore for the prosecution, and Colonel Hill, Hon. R. W. Taylor and Judge Blandin for the defense, were in their places yesterday afternoon when the time for trial arrived, but Dr. R. J. Marshall, an important witness, was absent. Again it seemed as though the trial would be postponed as the defense were anxious to have him present, but Judge Billingsley intervened. He recited briefly the number of times the matter had already gone over, and ruled that the trial should proceed.

The first witness called was John A. George, city engineer, and he was questioned closely. He testified as to the location of the trestle, and its construction, and was allowed to go without revealing anything but what an engineer would know about the structure.

The next witness was George Ewing, one of the crowd who had spent the evening at the Robinson party. He said he was walking along the trestle in company with Amanda Martin and her sister, and before they started from the house he had looked eastward and seen no car. None was in sight, and he could not hear the rumbling of the wheels. They had reached the second telephone pole from the end of the trestle before he heard any unusual noise, and when he saw it he left his companions and ran after the car, hoping to overtake it before more damage could be done. After running a distance—he could not tell how long—he fell through the trestle, and was himself injured. He also testified, under close questioning, that when the car passed him the motorman was doing his best to lessen the speed and stop it, but the car had been allowed to gain such momentum as to make this impossible. The cross examination was severe, but the witness stood it very well, and after he had finished court adjourned until this morning.

When court closed last night, and the witnesses moved about the town there was a rumor that the case would be thrown out of court this morning, but no one seemed to know where it came from and little credence was given it. But it proved a glaring reality this morning when the crowd gathered in the courtroom, and the word was passed around that there would be no more trial. But it was a surprise, nevertheless, when the side of the plaintiff announced the case would go no farther, and it was all over. Before they could make a case it was necessary to show that the claimants were not trespassing on the property of the defendant company, and this the testimony did not bring out. Neither could they show negligence and wantonness on the part of the company. On the other hand, the testimony showed all the advantages on the side of the company, and the plaintiff decided to continue no longer in what was plainly a useless battle. The news was received with manifestations of delight by the witnesses, and the matter was ended. This decision affects all the other cases brought out by the accident on that fatal Thanksgiving evening, and there will be no more claims for damages. It is the first damage case won by the company, and is observed in the light of a victory by those most interested. The witnesses started for home as soon as they could leave.

WHERE IS COURTNEY?

He is on the Trial List, but His Whereabouts Make a Secret.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, June 25.—Clarence Courtney, the man who escaped from the Canton jail before he could be brought here to testify against John Henry, is listed for trial, but the public do not know where he is. Prosecutor Speaker said this morning that he had been captured in the West, but he did not show a great desire to talk about it. John Henry will be brought here from the penitentiary to take part in the case.

NOT OLD NICK,

But a Couple of Young Nicks and a Board Bill in Court.

Nick Eck is looking for another man whose front name is sometime for the sake of brevity, pronounced like his own handle, and if he does not get him he will be content with a sum of money now in the hands of the East End Sewer Pipe company.

The much sought for individual is Nicholas Waggoner. Until a short time ago he boarded with Eck. Then, so the story goes, there was trouble in Dew Drop alley and Waggoner was in it with both pedestals. He thought it better to seek pastures of a brilliant greenish hue than to loiter around, and he called upon to inspect the luxurious apartments at city hall. So he disappeared and did not wait to secure his wages at the Knowles, Taylor & Anderson sewer pipe works, where he was employed. Eck is a saloonist of Market street and does not believe that a board bill, although so closely associated with spirituous liquors, follows the liquid example of improving with age, so he figured it up and found that his departed friend was in his debt for about $21. Yesterday he went to Squire Morley's office and entered suit. The case is set for Thursday at 1 o'clock.

BEGINNING OF THE END.

What an Official Styles the Wellsville Election.

"The election to bond Wellsville for the purpose of improving the water works system is only the beginning of the end," said one of the local trustees today. "It is only a question of time until they will come to Liverpool for what water the town needs, because they can then get better water for less money than they can ever hope to have by owning their own system. It will take a special act of legislature, but I think it will come. Another reservoir would have been necessary if this connection with the high service had not been made, but now by keeping the pumps going we could serve them. I think a water main will soon be a bond of union between the towns."

JOURNEYMEN MUST JOIN.

The Barbers Decide to Bring Them All In the Union.

The barbers met last night, and made several important changes in the constitution of the union in order to admit the journeymen of the trade. In the future all journeymen barbers must become members of the union if they want to work in union shops. Prior to this time only the owners of shops were admitted, but Trades Council would not accept their delegates until this was done, and the move was promptly made. A motion to work until midnight on July 3 and no work on the Fourth was defeated, and you can be shaved on the morning of the glorious Fourth if you want it.

THEY ARE HAPPY.

Sanitary Workmen Are Feeling Good Over the Increase.

James Cannon, a well known potter who is at present employed at the Tiltonville sanitary plant, is in town on business, and is wearing the pleasantest brand of pleasant smiles. The sanitary trade is booming, and the Tiltonville plant has more than it can do to fill orders. The increase in wages is received with joy and gladness by the workmen, who are just now commencing to see the good effects of the raise. In one instance $1.40 is paid for what only brought $1 under the old list.

TAKE IT AWAY.

That Unightly Derrick in the Diamond Endangers Life.

When John Rinehart was driving through the Diamond last evening his horse scared at the unsightly derrick at the well, and in its wild struggles lost its footing. In a moment the driver was on the ground beside him holding down his head while the crowd wondered what would next happen. The buggy was broken, and it was necessary to cut the harness before the animal could be released. Move that derrick.

NOT DISCOURAGED.

The Jolly Company Are Drilling Another Well.

When the Jolly company found their first well in the new territory over the river was a duster they promised the owners of the land another test, and the well was started yesterday. The drillers think there is a good showing for oil in that lease, and the company have determined to test every part of it.

A BIG DAY FOR THE BOYS

With Oceans of Fun For the Dogs.

A CELEBRATION SUGGESTED

Since the City Will Not Observe Independence Day With Anything Like the Old Time Gathering, Why Not Make a Novel Affair, Says a Citizen.

East Liverpool is the home of innovation. It leads the county in enterprise, and pushes to the front in state ranks when there is something unusual at hand.

The greatest and most novel of all the novel suggestions born and nourished in the city is that of a well known professional man, who longs to see the Fourth observed by the people in general. For days he has been waiting for the patriotic orders to make a move, and before he fell back on them he hoped the board of commerce would move to the front, and arrange a celebration. When he saw these opportunities go by, and knew the time was past for them to do anything, he decided that the churches would probably unite in a great picnic, and the ministers of the city would stand upon a flag bedecked platform and talk patriotism to the interested multitude. But even this notion left his mind when he saw no one moving in that direction, and he almost gave up the idea of any sort of happening until he chanced to remember that the whole affair would fall upon his shoulders. Then he began to think, and when he talked with a NEWS REVIEW representative he had his plan all cut and dried, and it is a plan that would work to perfection.

"Since there will be no parade, picnic, horse or bicycle racing, I think we might have great sport and lots of amusement with the boys and the dogs. They usually make a great noise on the Fourth, and I think in the absence of any other event they should have the day. Let them take their dogs, each with a string tied to his neck, and take part in a series of races, making the starting point at the old cemetery gate and the finish at Jackson street on Fifth. The pavement there is very fine, there is no better in the country, and the dogs could make good time. One condition of the race would be that every boy entering a dog into the races must keep tight hold on the string, and if he lets go, and the dog wins he forfeits the race. Now if some institution or society will take the matter up, business men will give prizes, hundreds of people who have no better place to go will have an afternoon of pleasure, and all the boys and dogs in town can become famous. Now, I don't want you to make it appear as though we wanted the day to go to the dogs, but we do want to show that East Liverpool still contains enough vim and energy to give us a celebration of some kind. Let us have these dog races. I'll guarantee the fun. I think it would be a good idea to let all enter without regard to size or style. The breed or record of any dog is not a matter of great consideration, and the ability of a boy to make the dog obey should not be taken into consideration. But speaking seriously I can say these dog races were successful in ancient times, and I don't know why they can't be made as entertaining now."

THE RALLY.

Young People Were Enthusiastic at the First Presbyterian.

The rally drew a large crowd of young people to the First Presbyterian church last evening, and resulted in a most enthusiastic meeting. The lecture room was beautifully decorated with flowering plants and cut flowers, while the Christian Endeavor banner was freely mingled with the national emblem in relieving the monotony of the walls. The program consisted of music and oratory, and was pleasing from start to finish. The Endeavor and League conventions were discussed, and all necessary information was freely given by the speakers. W. A. Hill was the president, and excellent music was given by the various church choirs, while the singing of the rallying song to the tune of "Marching Through Georgia" made the room ring. Among the speakers were Doctor Lee and Reverend Whitehead, while prominent members of young people's societies took an active part.

NEW OFFICERS.

The Rechabites Combine Business With Pleasure.

At the meeting of Favorite Tent, Rechabites, last night the following officers were elected. Shepherd, John Martin; chief ruler, P. F. McCloskey; deputy, Samuel Douglas; recording secretary, George Smith; financial, T. J. Jackson; treasurer, M. S. Dunlap; levite, W. T. Martin; inside guard, Frank Craven; outside, John Salmon; chaplain, J. B. McLaughlin; Trustees, M. J. Martin, Thomas Miles; delegate to grand tent, C. C. Golden. When the election was over the ladies appeared with cake and ice cream, and the evening was pleasantly spent. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tucker provided the feast.

A DAY OF RECKONING.

Mayor Gilbert Has a Few Settlements.

The charge against Jack Pollock was withdrawn in the court of Mayor Gilbert last night after he had paid the costs, and the case of young Apple faded into history.

It is probable that the Simpson case will go the same way. The mayor has been listening to both sides of the story, and with that common sense he so often uses believes it is time that something be done.

Joseph Wolf, the plain drunk who was brought in yesterday to brush the cobwebs from his brain, is still in confinement. He dreamed dreams and saw sights last night which almost made him wild.

HUSTLING FOR GOLD.

Christian Association Workers After Subscriptions.

Parties who are interested in the Young Men's Christian association are devoting their spare time these days to collecting funds. They need a few hundred to insure the proposed improvements, and are using their endeavors to gather it in. If the canvass is successful the directors will employ the physical director, and the association will be placed on a basis to insure better advancement in the future. All the members are anxious to have the director employed.

A FLASH FROM THE SKY.

Killed a Relative of Well Known Liverpool People.

Word reached here last night, that the youngest son of James Montgomery, residing near Van Wert, had been killed by a flash of lightning yesterday afternoon. Deceased was the brother of Mrs. Columbia Huston, residing at Calcutta, and a nephew of George Gaston of this city. These parties, accompanied by Mrs. Nancy Huston and Mrs. George Huston, of Fifth street, left today to attend the funeral. Montgomery was 19 years of age, and endowed with unusual talents.

FEW POPULISTS.

Liverpool Will Have Little to Say at the County Gathering.

"When the Populist county convention meets there will be few, if any, Liverpool people there as delegates," said one who was looked upon as a leader a year ago to the NEWS REVIEW. "I don't believe one-tenth the men who voted for Coxey last fall care a row of pins for the doctrine now. They have had their eyes opened, and if he should be nominated for governor they will cut him on every side. From what I can learn it is the same all over the district."

THREW HIM OFF.

An Exciting Incident on Sixth Street at Noon.

Two cars were passing on the Sixth street switch this afternoon when a passenger made himself obnoxious by the use of language that shamed the blue sparks from the motors, and made them flash red with indignation. The man was under the influence of liquor, and Motorman Thomas, who happened to be riding on the car, ordered him off. He fell between the cars, and the crowd expected to see him mangled, but he escaped injury.

THE REGULATOR DONE.

The High Service Will Soon be Connected.

Officials of the water department have been notified of the completion of the big regulator for the high service, and are expecting it any day. The pressure is 210 pounds but the regulator will reduce that to 80. Where the water comes in a 10 inch pipe is used, and the other connection is eight inches as are the connections on Forest street. The force are at work today putting in a gate near the Grant street school.

KNOCKED HER DOWN.

Charles Smith Was Frisky and the Mayor Will See Him.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith reside in an alley just off West Market street between Fourth and Fifth streets.

Last night Charles became indignant at some remark his wife made and knocked her down. A charge of assault and battery was filed against the festive Charles, and he will answer to the mayor for his conduct.

SHE WAS HYSTERICAL

And Neighbors Thought Mrs. Bashor Had Suicided.

A DOCTOR DISPELLED THE FEAR

And the Commotion on Lower Sixth Street Died Away—An Unhappy Wife and Her Woes Led to Desperation But It Wasn't Any Worse.

Lower Sixth street was rent with screams and moans last night, and for a time it seemed as if somebody was endeavoring to create a first class murder story.

The walls came from the residence of Solicitor A. H. Clark, a portion of which is occupied by Mrs. Wm. Bashor. Mrs. Clark recognized the voice as that of Mrs. Bashor, and as she had frequently heard her speak of suicide her first thoughts were that the fatal step had been taken. Doctor Hobbs was summoned and found Mrs. Bashor in hysterics. She had trouble with her husband who lives on West Market street and he also was informed that she contemplated suicide. Consequently the rumor that she had taken her own life spread until it caused considerable excitement. Doctor Hobbs could find no sign of poisoning and after leaving a prescription for some soothing potion went home.

WHAT TO EXPECT.

July Weather As It Has Been in the Last 12 Years.

The young men of the weather bureau who have been keeping tab on the weather for the last 12 years find the warmest July was in 1887, with a record of 78 degrees; the coldest was in 1891, with 69 degrees, and the average for the 12 years was 73 degrees. The highest temperature was in 1887, when the mercury reached 108 on the 18th, and the lowest was July 9, 1894, when it got down to 36. The rain fall for the month averages 3.22 inches, and the average number of days with 51 of an inch or more is nine. The average number of cloudless days is 14, partially cloudy 12, cloudy five. Now make out your weather list for the month.

ENFORCING A RULE.

Spring Grove Directors Must Know Who Lives With Them.

An important meeting of the directors of Spring Grove was held last night, and the decision reached that the Fourth should be celebrated by a lawn fete lasting the entire day, but the action of greatest moment was the decision to rigidly enforce rule 18 of the code now in existence. This gives the board power to accept or reject the application of persons intending to occupy cottages on the ground. Before a lot can be sold or a cottage rented the board must pass upon the applicant before he can come to live at Spring Grove. Cottagers will also be charged a water rent of a dollar during each season.

THE ANNUAL OUTING.

Masons Are Making a Day of It Over the River.

The Masons of the city are enjoying today at Rock Spring, a large number accompanied by their wives and sweethearts being in attendance. Many of the happy party are dancing in the pavilion to the music of Professor Wolf's orchestra, while others are wandering around the grounds enjoying the cool shade and refreshing water. Among the Masons from abroad who were in attendance are several from Wellsville, Jack Harris and Will Murphy, of Pittsburg.

AT THE BAR.

Al Johnson Must Answer the Commissioners.

After any quantity of delay and numerous promises to have the case brought out in all its glory the county commissioners have advanced their case against Al Johnson so far as to have it placed on the assignment list for the last week in July. It will be remembered that the commissioners and representatives of the Johnson company met in conference here last winter and it was thought at that time the affair would be settled, but it came to nothing.

MAY CHANGE THE SYSTEM.

At the Annual Meeting of the Humane Society.

Thomas Lloyd is preparing for the annual meeting of the humane society which will be held in the city some time next month. The work of the society of the year will be touched upon, and there may be the inauguration of a new system. The society has been working under many disadvantages, and it is proposed to have a new system which will obviate many difficulties.

An electric road across the county would bring in the farmers. Can't the business men do something to help it along?

In spite of hard times and the gripping pain of this Democratic administration East Liverpool has something for which it can be thankful—Carl Brown and his wife will not make speeches here.

There is probably more sarcasm than anything else in the suggestion of a professional man that we have dog races on the Fourth. And why not. A town as large as East Liverpool deserves a poke for letting the day go by without a celebration.

MORE EVIDENCE.

The NEWS REVIEW has long argued that the only national issue in the next campaign should be the tariff, and the Cleveland World supports the idea with these words:

"Those who fancy that the tariff next year will not be the issue are advised to make themselves acquainted with the action of the manufacturing potteries of this country at their recent meeting at East Liverpool. Driven into a corner by the cut throat tariff rates in the Wilson-Gorman tariff act, they have decided to lower prices, in order, if possible, to retain their hold upon the American market. Unless they can come down to the level of English prices, the English ware will invade their field and drive them out of it."

"If they thought this permanent, they would either abandon the field altogether or bring down wages, prices, and all to an English basis. But they do not think it will be permanent. They believe the Republican party will be intrusted with the government next year, and that they can afford to take the risk of manufacturing for the time being without a profit or even at a loss, if thereby they can still keep possession of the market until rescue comes. Otherwise they will either have to cut wages to an English level, or go out of business altogether. Should they retire from business they would, when the Republicans come into power, have to do the fighting all over again for the market they had at last secured after years of struggle, toil and anxiety. To say that if they do not cut wages, these men will not think the tariff the only question worth fighting for would be as absurd as to say that if they did cut them their employees will not think it the only issue worth a conflict."

A FIGHT OVER SILVER.

Kentucky Democratic Convention Convened This Afternoon.

BLACKBURN AND CARLISLE FORCES

Drawn Up In Battle Array Over the Temporary Chairmanship and Order of Business—Louisville Papers Figure Out a Majority For the Gold Men.

LOUISVILLE, June 25.—The Democratic state convention, which convenes here late this afternoon, will be among the hottest contests in the history of the commonwealth. The polling of all the Louisville papers show the gold delegates to be in a majority. The silver men dispute their estimate and charge that the Louisville papers claim most of the uninstructed delegates, when those delegates are equally divided. The lines are drawn on the endorsement of the administration, with Carlisle's friends leading for the administration and Blackburn's friends against its financial policy. General Cassius M. Clay is the administration candidate for governor and General P. W. Hardin is the anti-administration candidate. Hardin is a pronounced free coinage man, as much so as Senator Blackburn, and if nominated wants a free silver plank. The first test of strength will come on the selection of a temporary chairman, who has the appointment of two members at large on all the committees.

The "sound money" delegates announce ex-Congressman W. J. Stone as their candidate for temporary chairman. They say Judge Beckner is Blackburn's man, who, at the Winchester convention last week, opposed the endorsement of Cleveland and Carlisle. They will make a test on the vote between Beckner and Stone, the latter being popular with some of the silverites and Hardin men. Meantime the conservatives want both Beckner and Stone to promise to appoint one silver man and one gold man as members at large of the committee on resolutions and in fact to divide equally the members at large of all the committees.

Senator Blackburn, who has more at stake at this convention than any of the state candidates and more even than Secretary Carlisle, is disposed to concede to the conservative plan of an equal division of the members at large on each of the committees, but the radical silver men are opposed to it.

The fighting is for the temporary organization with a view to securing the chairman, two members at large of the committee on resolutions, and controlling the rules and order of business so that nominations shall be made before the platform is adopted. As General Hardin claims to have enough votes to nominate him, the "honest money" delegates want the platform adopted first. There are some delegates instructed for Hardin who are opposed to free coinage. General Hardin is reported to have said he would insist on a free silver platform, and when seen he declined to deny it. His friends claim that he could not run on a Carlisle or administration platform after the canvass he has made with Blackburn and others on the free coinage issue.

There is a conservative element wanting the convention to reaffirm the national platform of 1892 and go no farther on the financial question, but the silverites say that would imply endorsement of the administration. Senator Blackburn favors the reaffirming of the platform of 1892 with an additional affirmation that the pledges of 1892 have not been fulfilled by President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle. The conservatives argue if General Hardin is nominated and so controls convention as to prevent the reaffirming of the national declarations of 1892, that the state ticket and platform would be outside of the party and that there might be some justification in the threatened bolt of the ultra gold men.

Emperor Visits the New York.

Admiral Kirkland says that the emperor will visit the New York again for a more thorough inspection.

The property will be advertised for sale for 30 days and at the end of that time sold by the receiver, starting the bid at the sum offered by the committee, $9,800,000.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Walter C. Sanger of Milwaukee and W. P. Sims of Washington, two of the most prominent class bicyclists in America, have been suspended from the racing track by the L. A. W. by Chairman Eideon. The charge against Sims is that at the races at Wallman, Mass., last week, he accepted a check in lieu of the prize won by himself. Sanger is charged with a like offense, as well as with selling his prizes.

A FIGHT ON BOWELL.

A Plot to Make Canada's Premier Resign.

MANITOBA MUDDLE THE CAUSE.

Protestants Claim He Has Combined With the Frenchmen to Force Through Parliament the Remedial Order Repealed by Manitoba—Bowell Determined to Fight.

OTTAWA, June 25.—Excitement over the crisis concerning the settlement of the Manitoba school difficulty continues. The Protestant supporters of the government have done their utmost to deter the government from interfering with the act of the Manitoba legislature doing away with separate schools.

MACKENZIE BOWELL.

Today Protestant ministerialists held a caucus and passed a resolution warning the government that Canada, outside of Quebec province, will not tolerate interference.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell, who, a few days ago, promised the French Conservatives that remedial legislation would be granted, adheres to his decision. There is now a plot on foot in the cabinet to compel Bowell to resign and to place Hon. G. E. Foster of New Brunswick, minister of finance, in the premier's chair.

Foster is a Protestant, and claims to have the full confidence of a majority of the Conservatives. Bowell, who is past grand master of the Canadian Orange Order, is alleged by his opponents to have arrived at an agreement with the Frenchmen of the cabinet to force the remedial bill through parliament. His opponents are Haggart, minister of railways and canals; Montague, secretary of state; Wallace, controller of customs; Daly, minister of the interior, and Ferguson, without a portfolio. With Bowell are: Oimet, minister of public works; Sir Adolphe Caron, postmaster general; Angers, minister of agriculture, and Sir Frank Smith, the latter the only English speaking Roman Catholic in the cabinet. Bowell is determined to hold to his power even if his government is defeated.

The Engineer's Bravery Rewarded.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., June 25.—Eight weeks ago Chicago and Alton Engineer Frank Holmes of this city was shot and killed by train robbers while defending his train from an attack at Carlinville, Ill. The officials of the Alton road have made arrangements to build a cottage at Bloomington for Holmes' widow, costing $1,500, and giving her $1,000 in cash, as a testimonial of their appreciation of Holmes' fidelity and bravery.

Secretary Gresham's Will.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The will of Walter Q. Gresham, late secretary of state, has been admitted to probate. He leaves everything to his wife. The schedule of property owned by General Gresham shows that he was worth $51,000 at the time of his death. Of this $10,000 is in real property and the balance in personal effects.

Knights of St. John Convention.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 25.—The seventeenth annual convention of Knights of St. John is in session in this city. The delegates and commanderies were welcomed on the part of the state by Governor Matthews and to the city by Mayor Hawkins. Bishop Chatard delivered an address in which he spoke eloquently of the loyalty of the order to its country and its national flag.

Emperor William Present.

KIEL, June 25.—The officers of the Royal Sovereign, the British flagship, have given a banquet to their German colleagues. Emperor William was present.

Peasants and Soldiers Fight.

ATHENS, June 25.—In an encounter between the peasantry and the Turkish soldiers in the province of Apocouria, Island of Crete, an officer, four soldiers and four peasants were killed. The ferment continues.

GOLD RESERVE ALL RIGHT.

It is About the $100,000,000 Mark—the First Time Since December.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Although the books of the treasury department do not show it, the gold reserve is practically above the $100,000,000 mark for the first time since last December, when it was forced to that point as a result of an issue of gold bonds.

According to the treasurer's statement, the gold balance is $99,817,395, but this statement does not include a consignment of $1,225,000 in bar gold brought to New York by the Campana on Saturday for August Belmont & Co. on account of the government bond syndicate.

The Fitzsimmons Trial.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 25.—Nine jurors have been accepted subject to peremptory challenge in the Fitzsimmons trial. One of the attorneys in the case expressed an opinion to your representative after court adjourned, that only two of these would be finally accepted. It was learned tonight that the prosecution intend to show that Fitzsimmons struck a malicious blow and a knockout to teach Rordan that he should not become intoxicated as he was the night the fatality occurred.

Shot For Teasing the Girls.

ANDERSON, Ind., June 25.—Lawson Barger and Daniel Duffy, two glass blowers, called at the home of the Misses Nicum, in this city. The two men entered the yard and began to make themselves obnoxious by teasing the girls. The father of the Nicum girls raised a window and emptied both barrels of a shotgun into the bodies of Barger and Duffy. The men are seriously wounded. The gun exploded when it went off and Nicum was also injured.

Columbia Won the Race.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 25.—The four-mile stretch of Hudson river water opposite Poughkeepsie has been christened as an intercollegiate course by the contest which was won by Columbia's eight over those of Cornell and Pennsylvania. Cornell was beaten by about six boat lengths, and while the victory was being won Pennsylvania's men, cramped within three-quarters of a mile of the finish, were sitting in their shell, waist deep in the water, waiting to be rescued by an approaching tug.

Troops Go to Gettysburg.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Two cavalry troops, A and H, Sixth cavalry, with a band, left Fort Myer today for Gettysburg. A battery of the Third artillery from Washington accompanied the cavalry. These troops will participate in the ceremonies of unveiling statues and monuments at the battlefield, lasting several days. A statue of General John Buford will be unveiled on this occasion.

Another Incendiary Fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Another mysterious fire on the Presidio reservation has destroyed the post canteen and severely burned the barkeeper, Ernest Ralph, a discharged soldier. The destruction of the building will entail a loss of $2,000. Colonel Graham ascribes the fire to an incendiary, probably the same man who burned the gunshed last week destroying property valued at $30,000.

Gibbons Changes the Pope's Views.

ROME, June 25.—Cardinal Gibbons will leave here on July 1. Before returning to Baltimore he will stay some time at a health resort in England. It is stated upon good authority that as a result of the visit of the cardinal to Rome, the Holy See has taken a more unfavorable view of the attitude of Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul on the school question.

Found Shot In the Back.

CHESTERTON, N. Y., June 25.—Amasa Mead, 65 years old, has been found dead in his bed at his home, his back riddled with buckshot. He was a widower and lived alone on the Warrensburg road, a mile from here. His habits were those of a hermit, and he was supposed to have considerable money concealed on his premises.

Poisoned by a Bat.

CARRIERS SUSPENDED.

They Loitered at Their Work in Columbus.

INSPECTORS SPIED ON THEM.

The Postoffice Department Has Entered on a Policy of Having Private Detectives Watch the Men on Their Rounds—The Force Being Reduced.

COLUMBUS, June 25.—Twenty-two mail carriers here have been suspended from 5 to 30 days by orders from Washington, the result of private watching affording evidence of slow work on routes by these carriers.

A Washington special says: The postoffice department has entered on a policy of detailing inspectors to watch letter carriers on their rounds and inattention to duties, delays and any irregular conduct on their routes. The operation of the system was begun about six months ago, but the plan was not given any publicity and it was begun on a small scale, only one or two officers being watched. The scheme was finally broadened and now involves offices in a number of important cities. Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and Columbus are known to be among these.

Special reports were made to the department by the inspectors. Delays in delivering mail at the houses, unnecessary conversation; stops on meeting acquaintances and waste of time generally were reported and complaints entered against the postoffice in the department files. The system is not yet general, but the inspection has resulted during the past five or six months in a reduction of letter carrier forces of about 100 carriers. Postmasters at a number of these places have made requests for an additional force of carriers, but in many instances the requests have been fruitless and the postmasters have been told that special reports show their force is sufficient. In some instances, notably at Philadelphia, a material cut in the force has been ordered. Officials decline to discuss the matter, but they regard the system as beneficial and a satisfactory check on waste of expenditure for the service.

WILL DEFY THE POPE.

Ex-Congressman Foran Won't Give Up His Allegiance to Secret Societies.

CLEVELAND, June 25.—The Universe, the official organ of Bishop Horstmann of the Catholic diocese of Cleveland, is out with the statement that there has been received from Rome a reiteration of the pope's request that all members of the church withdraw from secret societies, notably the Odd Fellows and the Knights of Pythias.

Ex-Congressman Foran, one of the leading attorneys of this city, and other prominent Catholics in this city who are members of secret societies, consulted and decided to write to Mr. Foran and ask whether the pope's declaration would be enforced as an edict. Mr. Foran, who is one of the leading members of the Elks and a Knight of Pythias, declared in an interview that while he was a good Catholic, his secret society connections were a matter of conscience, and that he would not give way to any authority on that point.

Arrest of Traber a Great Surprise.

HAMILTON, O., June 25.—The arrest of J. Milton Traber at Elmwood yesterday evening on the charge of embezzlement, was a surprise to his friends in this city. Several years ago young Traber acted very strangely, and it was thought at the time that his mind was unbalanced. After a while he assumed his normal condition and conducted himself in a manner that assured his friends that he was all right. His honesty was never at issue before. It is the general impression here that he is mentally unbalanced.

Excited Over a Girl's Death.

DAYTON, O., June 25.—The district six miles southeast of this city is intensely excited over the death of Anna Frost, aged 18, which is alleged to be due to the administration of drugs for a criminal purpose. Her lover, Alonzo Miller, is suspected. He has been in trouble before, being accused while an attendant at the Southern Ohio lunatic asylum of brutally beating an inmate, John Smith, causing his death. The jury disagreed in three trials. Miller was acquitted. Investigation is in progress.

Due to a Bank Failure.

CINCINNATI, June 25.—Mr. John B. Specker, doing business as Specker Bros. & Co., wholesale drygoods, Elm street, have assigned to Adam Kramer. The assignment is a direct result of injury to his credit because of his relations with the recently suspended Commercial National bank. Suits have been brought against him on that account, and they have precipitated this course. His assets are said to be $750,000, with liabilities less, though not definitely ascertained.

A Woman's Skeleton Found.

TOLEDO, June 25.—The skeleton of an unknown woman has been found under the floor of a cottage on Wisconsin street, this city, by a party of boys at play. There is a gruesome mystery about the case, for there is no doubt but that the woman was murdered. The police believe that the body is that of Mrs. John Munda, who formerly lived in the house and suddenly disappeared about two years ago.

Lightning Plays Havoc.

WAPAKONETA, O., June 25.—Lightning and storm have played havoc in the oil field in this vicinity. Nichols' and Levy's loss will reach about $1,000, while in the buckland field the loss cannot be estimated.

They Ask For a Receiver.

DETROIT, June 25.—President Albert Pack and other officers of the new Detroit railway have filed a bill in the circuit court for the appointment of a receiver of the Citizens' Street Railway company, the old company. The complainants own $100,000 worth of stock in the old company and have been seeking to make the management of the latter concern disclose certain of their affairs.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Joseph Taylor has moved here with his family from Lorain on the lake.

Dr. J. W. Gardner and family removed yesterday to Spring Grove campground, where they will spend the summer.

The case of Nicholas Schulz versus Ellen Hanlon for $161.05 in Squire Manley's court was to have been called for trial at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, but was postponed owing to Mrs. Hanlon being ill. It will be tried later in the week.

George Rhodes, a young man whose family resided in this city but has in late years been employed at Waynesburg, is at work in the freight depot filling the place of Homer Clark, who is ill.

Henry Hughes, formerly janitor in the Foutts block, but now residing near Ohioville, Pa., is convalescing from an illness which has confined him to his bed for several months and brought him near to death.

The watermelon season has opened with all the beauty of the best melons seen in the city for years. Almost a car load arrived at the freight depot, this morning, but smaller lots have been on the market for several days.

Doc Howard, the old soldier whose sounding taps upon the drum when the Grand Army parade is known to every man, woman and child in the city, has moved with his effects to Salineville, where he will conduct a barber shop. He looks for prosperity there.

Council will meet this evening in regular session and among the old reliable items the Sant bill will be urged for payment. Outside of this a few new ordinances and petitions will probably be the most important things to occupy the attention of the solons.

The many friends of Mrs. J. B. Rowe, Washington street, will be pained to learn that the lady is not recovering from her illness and is in a critical condition. It is feared that the chances are against her recovery, but her physician has not given up hope as yet.

The North Side mission of the First Presbyterian church will entertain with a lawn fete this evening. The people of that part of the city have manifested great interest in the mission, and are making this the effort of their lives. Among the principal features will be the music.

The Junior Mechanics will be reinforced on Sunday next, when they attend services in the First Methodist Episcopal church, by the members of the Patriotic Order Sons of America. The latter being a most loyal order always observes days set apart for substantial proof of their patriotism.

A rumor was going the rounds yesterday that the store of T. B. Murphy, Fifth street, had been burglarized Sunday night about 10:30 o'clock. Such was not the case, but several men were prowling around there at that time and it is believed that pedestrians alone, by their appearance, prevented a robbery.

Patrons of the street railway company were delayed a short time last night because the trolley wire decided to drop at the turn table in the west end of Wellsville. Fortunately it was almost midnight when the accident happened and cars were soon running backward in spite of the hour required to repair the break.

The drill of Company E this week will take place as usual on Thursday night in the rink and every member is expected to be in his place. Captain Supplee will enforce his edict of the past two drill nights by discharging all men absent from drill unless it is absolutely impossible owing to sickness or absence from the city to be on hand.

The case of W. L. Smith versus Mrs. Mary Coulson for $147 was set for 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Squire Rose's court but neither party appeared and judgment was rendered for the full amount. The money was claimed on a promissory note. The case of the J. D. McNabb ice company versus J. S. Dixon was postponed until Friday at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

The people of Chester are still stirred up over the row at the "holiness" meeting Sunday and declare that they will brand them by law a nuisance, even if suit has to be entered in the courts of Hancock county to bring about such a result. It is not likely, however, that resort to such means will be necessary. One of the holiness people said yesterday that they had been offered the use of Rock Spring free of charge each Sunday and would in all probability go there.

The lawn fete conducted by the Woman's Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church on the lawn of Richard Thomas, Seventh street, last night, was a successful and delightful entertainment. Incandescent lights flashed everywhere through the trees, and fancy lanterns added not a little to the beauty of the scene. The girls' band made excellent music for the occasion, while the ladies sold gallons of ice cream. The proceeds will be sent to Mrs. Ada Lee in far away India for her mission school in which so many Liverpool people are interested.

White Parasols.

We have sold a pile of them this season. Some of them were great values, but it has been our luck to strike a lot this last week that for real value knocks them all out. 24-inch China Silk top, with the new Dresden handles, crooks and knobs, at $1.50 each. This is a $2.00 parasol and you will admit it when you see them.

Our trade has been large this year on these goods, and we attribute it to the grade of goods we are selling. The Merrill Silk Glove has no equal for wear as it has the double tips and is made to stand good solid wear. We sell them at the same prices you will have to pay for gloves not having the advantages we claim for the Merrill. We show a full line of Silk Mitts from 20c up to 50c per pair, made by the Amsterdam Silk Mills, and we guarantee more value for the money in this line of goods than you have been getting.

Wrappers. Tea Gowns.

We opened a new lot a few days ago. We want you to see them. When you can buy a wrapper for $1 like we are selling you will make no more wrappers. More style than you could possibly put on a wrapper inside of a day's hard work. The best of calico used, and the price about what the calico would cost you.

Towels.

Did you see that 25c towel of ours. If not you are missing the biggest thing in towels ever offered in the city. We have other values just as good, but you know 25c is a price that takes and we are selling more towels for that price than you ever bought.

LOOKING FOR AN OFFENDER.

Street Railway Officials Must Have Order.

The police and Walter Supplee, of the street railway company, are looking for Fred Pittenger, and when he is arrested there will be another lesson for obstreperous passengers. He is charged with refusing to pay his fare, and then using abusive language when ordered to leave the car. The motorman told him to get off, but he refused, and now they are looking for him. The warrant was made at the office of Mayor Gilbert in Liverpool, but the police of both cities are looking for their man.

PRAISE FOR A MUSICIAN.

Nice Things They Say of Joe D. McGinnis.

The Pittsburg Press of last Sunday contains a long notice of Joe D. McGinnis, the musician son of Proprietor McGinnis, of the Commercial House. It praises him as a rising musician, and says that his rendition of classical music is nothing short of wonderful for one so young and calls him the coming star concert pianist of the country. His brother is a clerk at the Liverpool freight depot.

TALKED OF DEBBS.

One of His Friends Made a Speech in the Square.

Eugene V. Debbs, the labor leader who is now in jail for contempt of court, had an advocate in the square last night in the person of an individual whose theme was what he styled existing conditions. He thanked several powers because what he believed was the spirit of '76 still existed, and talked learnedly of the labor question. A crowd of several hundred heard what he had to say, and repeatedly applauded him.

Had an Argument.

Motorman Richards had a lengthy and heated argument on Main street last evening with a resident, who claimed that the car had proceeded unnecessarily slow and caused him to miss the train he intended taking. He had once stopped a car, and the motorman, having gone a short distance past him, was reversing to go back when he motioned for the car to go ahead and said he would catch the next one. The man began to swear, but quieted down when the motorman threatened to give him something to cause even more profanity. The dispute amused a small crowd.

Fined For Fighting.

William Roland, the colored man arrested yesterday for fighting, was fined $7.95 this morning, and settled with the mayor.

A Rochester man was arrested for stealing rides on the railroad last night, and given the customary $5 this morning. He is the only one of his class on hand today the remainder having departed after working out their fines, or quietly slipping away when they were weary of staying.

The Railroad Picnic.

The Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad employees held a meeting today and decided to hold their annual picnic on August 10.

OFFICERS OF THE DAY.

Starter, W. M. Hill; referee, W. O. Hamilton; clerk of course, C. E. Macrum; timers, W. V. Blake, Frank E. Grosshans and Ed Wells. All entries close on Thursday evening when the numbers will be given out to the contestants. To the list of prizes John McKinney has added one valued at $4, the winner to select it from the store.

NO DAMAGE SUIT.

The City Must First Have Sixty Days' Notice.

The announcement in a local paper last night that Eleanor Curran had sued the city for $10,000 is wrong. The claimant fell over a bluff, and at that time the NEWS REVIEW made the statement she would sue, but as yet that has not been done. Instead the claim has been filed with the city clerk, and will likely be brought up in council tonight. According to the law the city has 60 days to consider before suit can be entered.

The Last Assignment.

SPECIAL TO NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, June 25.—The last assignment for the present term of court was made public this morning and is as follows:

Monday, July 8—Commissioners versus Al Johnson; Robert Welsh versus Wellsville. Tuesday—Robert Workman, John Smith versus Wellsville; T. P. Francis versus Saltville; The state versus Adam Graham, Wallace Nelcewonger, A. James, John Henry and Charles Courtney. Thursday—Peter Springer versus Catherine Jones.

HE IS A MONGREL.

And He Will Save Punishment by Behaving Himself.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—He calls himself a gentleman and has so covered up his real life and habits as to be able to impose upon a lady of refinement in our city of East Liverpool. Becoming acquainted with his true character, she at once cut his acquaintance. The young tough met her a few evenings since and was so unmanly as to use threats and bad language, and has even gone so far as use her name lightly in the presence and hearing of boon companions. Her mother, a widow lady, called the coward down in warm terms, and has given him to understand that a repetition of the offense will cause him dire trouble, and that punishment will follow, swift and sure, even if a woman's hand has to perform the deed. The story has come to the ears of male friends of the family, genuine men, men who despise such a coward and poltroon as the fellow made mention of, and they now give him fair warning, through these columns, that if he persists in his unmanly course the aforesaid gentlemen will take him in hand, and make this region of country unhealthy for him. And, young fellow, they mean just what they say. MANHOOD.

LIVERPOOL NOT IN IT.

Naval Battalions, but None For This Place.

The following special from Steubenville will interest young men who have fondly hoped that a naval battalion will be formed in this place:

"A conference will soon be called for the purpose of organizing state naval reserve battalions at Cleveland, Toledo, Cincinnati and Steubenville. The meeting will be held at an early date, so as to give those interested in the scheme a chance to communicate with members of the legislature and solicit their interest in a bill which has been prepared providing for a battalion of the reserves in the four cities named."

MONEY FOR THE PARK.

A Citizen Offers to Start the Subscription List.

A well known resident who has become deeply interested in the park made the statement last night that he would start the subscription list for the park. Another resident who has a lot in the cemetery said he would gladly donate it if the city wanted to make it a park. The movement is starting, and some day, perhaps not far in the future, it will be well under way.

TWO DECISIONS.

Farmer Case For the Farmers—Goddard Must Pay Dixon.

Squire Morley this morning rendered a verdict in favor of Mrs. Helena Farmer with $20 damages for the time the drilling machine was idle in the Diamond after Constable Lyon seized it.

A verdict was also given in favor of John S. Dixon for $85 against John Goddard, for the latter damaging his horses.

She Deserves to Win.

Talk about men winning their way to success and surmounting difficulties, and East Liverpool can furnish a widow who will discount all such stories. The lady in question was left with a large family of children, and without a dollar to call her own. She is a woman of indomitable pluck and nerve, and a firm believer in a protecting Providence, and she determined to win out and did, making a living for herself and family and purchasing and paying for a snug little home. But to do this, she has worked and toiled as but few men or women could possibly do, rising at 4 o'clock each morning and toiling almost unceasingly until the midnight hour. She is a true heroine and richly deserves the success she has won.

Dissolved the Union.

At the Eastern Ohio Christian Endeavor meeting in Bellaire it was decided to dissolve the association, and organize county unions to take its place. The members believe this will permit them to conduct the work with more advantage than under the old system.

A Charge Against Job Dawson.

J. T. King, sanitary policeman, entered a charge against Job H. Dawson before Mayor Gilbert today, asserting that he had broken the law by allowing a vault on his Third street property to become filled, and attempting to remedy it in a forbidden way.

Not Bound to Keep the Peace.

THE WOMAN

—who takes the surest way to gain a beautiful color and a wholesome complexion, paints and powders which soon injure the skin. Sallow or wrinkled face, dull eyes and hollow cheeks, together with low spirits, follow the derangements, irregularities and weaknesses peculiar to the sex. All women require a tonic and nerve at some period of their lives. Whether suffering from nervousness, dizziness, fainting, displacement of womanly organs, catarrhal inflammation of the living membranes, bearing-down sensations, or general debility, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription reaches the origin of the trouble and corrects it. It is a medicine which was discovered and used by an eminent physician for many years in all cases of female complaint, and those painful disorders that afflict womanhood. If women are overworked, run-down, tired or sleepless, if they are irritable, morbid and suffer from back-ache, they should turn to the right means for a permanent cure. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription fits just such cases, for it regulates and strengthens the system, builds up and invigorates the entire female system.

DISEASE OF WOMB.

Mrs. CORA S. WILSON, of Carlisle, Sullivan Co., Ind., writes: "I cannot say too much for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I feel it my duty to say to all women who are suffering from any disease of the uterus that it is the best medicine on earth for them to use. I cannot praise it too highly for the good it did me. If any one doubts this, give them my name and address."

A pamphlet, containing a vast number of testimonials with reproduced photographs of those cured and giving full name and address of each, will be mailed to any address free; or, Dr. Pierce's large treatise (688 pages) profusely illustrated with wood engravings and colored plates mailed post paid on receipt of 10 cents in stamps. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Two wheelmen who could not see each other in the gloom collided yesterday evening on the river road, and one lost a few spokes in his wheel because his foot went through it while his head pounded the unsympathetic earth.

FOUR FIREBUGS INDICTED.

Others, Including a Prominent Insurance Official, May Be Arrested.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Three indictments have been found by the grand jury against alleged members of the gang of firebugs whose operations were revealed to the police by Samuel Milch, a fire insurance agent last week. The men indicted are George W. Holt, fire insurance adjuster; Koebel Friedland, the shirt manufacturer who was a member of the firm of L. Cohen & Co., and Charles F. Leitz, the policeman who was formerly detailed for duty at the office of Fire Marshal Mitchell. All indictments are for complicity in the incendiary fire of the shirt factory of Louis Gordon.

An indictment was also found against Henry Cohen, a member of the firm of L. Cohen & Co., for complicity in the fire at 21 White street. It is expected that, as a result of this work before the grand jury, bench warrants will be issued for the arrest of other insurance men—a number of clerks in the offices of different insurance adjusters and for at least one high insurance company official.

Calomel.

Calomel was discovered by Crollins in the seventeenth century, and the first directions for its preparation were given by Beguin in 1608. Its name is derived from two Greek words, signifying "a beautiful black," because in its preparation a black powder is the first step in the manufacture, being produced by rubbing mercury together with corrosive sublimate.

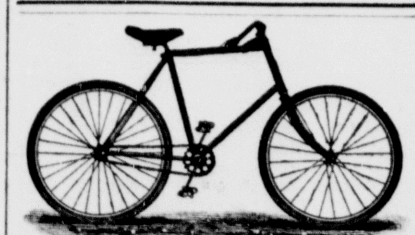

The Illinois river was so termed from the Illini, a tribe of Indians on its banks. Another derivation is suggested in Isle aux Noix, island of Nuts. Several derivations more or less fanciful are suggested by the etymologists and geographers.

The frequency of storms in Nebraska is due to the fact that not only do many originate there, but the storms of Dakota move southeast, and those of Kansas and Texas northeast, generally passing through Nebraska on their easterly course.
